

Commercial Excellence Developer

Location:
Aarhus

Deadline:

Do you love to automate and challenge the status quo? Do you enjoy working with large datasets, dare to think in theory, and exploring bold ideas? Then this might be the perfect opportunity for you.

In this position, you'll play a key role in driving data-driven decision-making across the organization. By developing and optimizing tools, workflows, and data processes, you'll help ensure our operations, assortment, and pricing strategies are both efficient and effective. Your work will directly support smarter, faster decisions across the business—empowering teams with the systems and insights they need to succeed.

You are a success, when you:

- Develop and maintain Excel-based tools and Power Automate workflows.
- Optimize data flows for tools and analyses using SQL and R/Python.
- Drive new projects within operations, assortment and pricing.
- Support the organization in making optimal operational and pricing decisions by ensuring effective and efficient use of systems and tools.

Let's talk about you

To thrive in this role, certain personal qualities and ways of working will help set you up for success. You are ambitious and goal-oriented, driven by strong motivation and a determination to succeed. With an analytical mindset and a competitive nature, you approach challenges with energy and personal drive. You work in a structured and focused way, consistently meet deadlines, and perform well under pressure. At the same time, you are a team player who is curious about how your colleagues work and interested in the challenges they face.

The skills we are looking for:

- You see yourself as an expert in VBA.
- You have advanced experience with SQL.
- You are proficient in R, Python, or similar language – and open to learning new ones.
- Experience with Power Automate and Power Query is a plus.

We like to think we have quite an amazing workplace, including:

- A dynamic and international environment with room for you to be you,
- Lots of opportunities for your own professional development and for you to make an impact,
- A flat, informal organisation with a high degree of independence and short decision-making processes,
- Attractive settings for the job, to mention some: flexible work hours, health care, lunch scheme, Friday breakfast, gym, and great social events.

About Whiteaway Group and your team

Whiteaway Group started with a simple idea, a commitment to our customers, and with a passion for digital innovation. Today, we're a successful retailer, selling and delivering household appliances across Scandinavia. We're change-makers at heart – it's the very core of everything we do.

As our new Commercial Excellence Developer, you will join a team of 9 dedicated and passionate colleagues in the Commercial Excellence department. We are a support and development team within the Commercial Department, responsible for developing and optimizing pricing strategies, assortment planning, product content, and the internal tools and processes that support them – including our forecasting & replenishment (F&R) system. We are a young and dynamic team that thrives on challenging the status quo.

We're committed to creating an inclusive environment for all employees. We welcome applicants from all backgrounds, beliefs, and identities. If you require specific accommodations during the hiring process or within our workplace, please let us know so we can ensure your application process is as accessible as possible.

Interested? Here's how to apply:

We'll be screening and interviewing candidates on an ongoing basis, so please don't hesitate to apply. There's no need to submit a traditional application — simply answer the three questions in the application process and upload your CV. That's it!
