Deadline:

Are you our new Project Manager?

WHITEAWAY GROUP

We're looking for an experienced Project Manager to join our Projects and Sustainability department at WAG. In this role, you will have the opportunity to make a real impact by managing a variety of strategic projects and supporting the development of fellow Project Managers. If you're ready to bring your project management skills to an ambitious and supportive team that values accountability, collaboration and excellence, this is the role for you.

Here's what you'll be doing:

As a Project Manager, you will:

- Lead the planning and execution of projects, ensuring clear scope, timelines, deliverables and resources to ensure successful project delivery.
- Work closely with cross-functional teams to define project scope, objectives and milestones, and help ensure projects align with business goals.
- Proactively monitor project progress, address potential risks, and work collaboratively with team members to create solutions.
- Keep team members and stakeholders informed with regular updates, reports, and performance metrics.
- Work with cross-functional teams to promote best practices and drive continuous improvement in how we plan, deliver, and optimize projects.
- Contribute to a culture of continuous improvement, collaboration and accountability by supporting the development of other Project Managers and key stakeholders.

What we're looking for:

We are looking for someone who has:

- 4–6 years of proven experience managing projects in a fast-paced environment.
- Strong knowledge of project management methodologies.
- Excellent organizational and problem-solving skills, with the ability to manage multiple tasks or projects effectively.
- Exceptional communication and interpersonal skills; capable of working collaboratively with diverse teams and building relationships with stakeholders.

We like to think we have quite an amazing workplace, including:

- A dynamic and international environment with room for you to be you,
- Lots of opportunities for your own professional development and for you to make an impact,
- A flat, informal organisation with a high degree of independence and short decision-making processes,
- Attractive settings for the job, to mention some: flexible work hours, health care, lunch scheme, Friday breakfast, gym, and great social events.

About Whiteaway Group
